

Christians at work in Luton Worship and Prayer evenings

The “Worship and Prayer Evenings For Luton” have developed over the past two years. We gather at the Salvation Army - a great venue which feels central in the town, hosted by officers Vikki and Josh Herbert. Worship is led by Ebony Ankra and Sara & Sam Hargreaves, and we’ve also had input from Ulrike Hunt, Pastor Tunde and others.

Last September the gathering became an official Churches Together In Luton Event.

Types of prayer ranges from all-aloud-together, quiet and reflective, in groups and pairs, and also creative expressions like drawing in bright pastels over monochrome images of Luton (see picture). Bible texts, words and ideas for prayer are
